

Job opportunities

Successful graduates of our program can choose from a wide spectrum of rewarding professional opportunities, which of course also depend on previous professional experiences. Comprehensive analyses of our graduates' careers document that they have found positions ranging from project managers in mid-size companies to international project managers in larger corporations, to consultants in international management consultancies.