

Study Content

Besides a general management curriculum, the IBC program focuses on the teaching and application of logistics, accounting and finance, information technology, and leadership skills.

A further characteristic of the program is the extensive use of case studies, through which students acquire both the factual knowledge and the social competence to work in international, interdisciplinary teams.